I went to BlackSheep Ink following a Facebook post of Jeff Riel being an artist there February 19, 2019 to Present, Julio said he had done work there but he thought he was licensed, I told him he wasn't approved by the board so don't allow him to work there anymore until he does

Shawn will need to be brought up to date on what happened so he can answer the Board. It is an item on the agenda.

Basically, what I need is that you went out there and spoke with Julio who told you Jeff said he was licensed and was working and he was told that Jeff can't be tattooing until he receives his license.

I cannot write anything because it is all he said she said, I have no proof that any illegal tattooing happened, if for some reason he were to get denied by the board it could lead to a lawsuit

Don is out today. I'll have him look into it Monday.

Hi Shawn

Would it be possible for Don to do a quick write up about Jeff Riel and Blaqsheep Ink so it can go with the Dev Services reports? Please let me know.

Thanks

Kerry
