

Greater Lowell MOAPC Cluster Towns
Post Opioid Overdose Follow-up

Town/City	Lead Agency	Program Name & Direct Contact	Program Description & Agency Involvement	Contact Person
Billerica	Billerica Substance Abuse Prevention Committee	Mike Higgins 978 -671-0943	Mike Higgins and a trained Billerica Police Department officer respond post overdose to a survivor's home. Follow-up treatment and services are offered to the victim and/or family. Narcan training and Narcan are also offered.	Mike Higgins 978 -671-0943
Chelmsford	Chelmsford Police Department	978-256-2521	Whenever Chelmsford Police Department respond to Mental Health and substance abuse calls, a licensed clinician (shared with four towns) will either accompany responding officers or follow up within 24 hours. This allows the option of providing treatment, up to and including hospitalization or detox rather than arrest.	(Police): 978-256-2521
Dracut	Dracut Police Department	Emergency: 911 Business Line: 978-957-2123	Officer Keri Bushnel will respond within 24-48 hours to the address of a reported drug overdose and offer treatment information to the survivor and family. Through the Jail Diversion program, officer Bushnell also has access to a Recovery Coach who is available to provide support when appropriate.	Officer Keri Bushnell 978-957-2123
Lowell	Lowell Health Department	Lowell Community Opioid Outreach Program (CO-OP) C: 978-631-7240	Lowell CO-OP is comprised of first responders and clinical staff from Lowell Fire Department, Lowell Health Department, Lowell House Addiction Treatment and Recovery, Lowell Police Department, Trinity EMS, and Vinfen who work together to decrease the number of non-fatal and fatal overdoses within Lowell while increasing the number of overdose survivors who access treatment. Lowell CO-OP follows-up with overdose survivors within 24-48 hours of a documented overdose.	Maricia Verma Lowell CO-OP Supervisor O: 978-856-1062 MVerma@lowellma.gov Lowell Health Dept.
Tewksbury	Tewksbury Police Department	Tewksbury Police Department 978-851-7373	Whenever Tewksbury Police Department respond to Mental Health and substance abuse calls, a licensed clinician (shared with four towns) will either accompany responding officers or follow up within 24 hours. This allows the option of providing treatment, up to and including hospitalization or detox rather than arrest. This clinician is also available to work with the department's recovery coach as part of a team that will follow up with survivors of overdose and families of overdose survivors. This team will requests for help within these domains (mental health and substance use) prior to incidents requiring a police response.	Maria Ruggiero 978-851-7373 Ext. 352
Westford	Westford Health Department	Westford Health Department	Westford Health Department has a drug counselor that follows up on all overdoses. Counseling is offered to the individual and/or their family	Ray Peachey 978-399-2528 rpeachey@westfordma.gov
Wilmington	Wilmington Police Department	Samantha Reif Health and Recovery Coordinator 978-447-2296	Referrals given from PD/FD to individuals during overdose episodes. A full time social worker and part-time recovery coach are available. Follow-up given to victims, family, and bystanders. Releases are used to help to collaborate services between systems/communities.	Samantha Reif, LCSW 978 447 2296 serif@wpd.org